THE DRESSAGE FOUNDATION'S $2,500 PATSY ALBERS AWARD AT DEL MAR NATIONAL HORSE SHOW

New this year, The Dressage Foundation's $2,500 Patsy Albers Award is being presented to the highest placing FEI rider at the 75th Annual Del Mar National Horse Show managed by HITS., with preference starting at the Grand Prix level, who previously competed for the U.S. at a North American Youth Championship.

Patsy Albers was one of the nation's best-known figures at dressage shows across the country. She was a longtime supporter and Chef d'Equipe of the North American Youth Championship Region 1 team. She was also very involved at the prestigious Dressage at Devon where she served for many years as the FEI Event Director. Her expertise also extended into management, officiating, and something she was honored for several times - volunteering.

The Patsy Albers Award was established by Janine Malone and other friends and colleagues of Patsy at The Dressage Foundation in 2013. The goal of this annual $2,500 award is to help the recipient continue to meet their training and competition goals.

The Dressage Foundation's mission is to strengthen U.S. dressage at all levels. Learn more about The Dressage Foundation's grants for dressage enthusiasts at dressagefoundation.org.
